SUNFLOWER

Jam Food

Spaghetti Cake, a five-piece rock group (vocals, keyboards, bass, drums, guitar) performs for young audiences and adults, bringing to life "The Young Person's Guide To The Rock Band". Their stage show is a mix of descriptive performance, Q&A sessions and hands-on experience for kids that is always met with startled faces, scores of air guitarists and a generation of will-be musicians. The all-star group of talented musicians in Spaghetti Cake shine as brightly on the arena stage as in front of festival crowds. The music of Spaghetti Cake delivers a positive message about believing in who you are and celebrating the kid in all of us.

Susan Birk & Glen Nelson, creators of Spaghetti Cake, are musicians, artists and teachers. In 2000, they released their debut album "Jam Food" (for which they won the national gold award of "Best New Artist for Older Children 2001" from the Children's Music Web Award) and a year later released their follow-up, "Sunflower". They are also available as a duo.

Spaghetti Cake is meant for all generations. It spans musical styles at every turn and bridges the gap between music of early childhood and adolescence. Brought to life believing that a child's earliest musical encounters shape lifelong learning, Sue, Glen and their talented friends sought to bring families and memories together through music.
